

mayor → eric garcetti

Garcetti has moved forward promising efforts around streets, transportation, and homelessness. But we need him to stop playing it safe, fight displacement and stand up for our black and brown, immigrant and refugee communities.

controller → ron galperin

attorney → mike feuer

city council

CD-1 joe bray-ali

PERO: "Chale con Cedillo" became the rallying call to push him on street safety issues and we agree that his tenure has failed the area's low-income residents of color. We endorse Bray-Ali, but with a warning that we will closely watch how he tackles gentrification.

CD-3 bob blumenfield

CD-5 jesse creed

CD-7 monica rodriguez

CD-9 adriana cabrera or jorge nuño

PERO: This was really hard for us, while both have their flaws, Adriana's values align more with ours. It should be noted, the message from this community was definitely not Price.

CD-11 mike bonin

CD-13 mitch o'farrell

CD-15 joe buscaino

● remember, the candidates elected March 7 get to serve a longer term (5.5 years), so the choice is important

community college board

LAUSD school board

LA Community College Board of Trustees

steve veres
seat 2

ernest moreno
seat 4

gabriel buelna
seat 6

LAUSD is about balance - between new and experienced, and pro-charter vs anti-charter. We need strong advocates for low-income communities of color that keep students and families at the center. We hope the rift between pro-charter vs anti-charter is addressed.

mónica garcía
D2 (central/eastLA)

kelly gonzalez
D6 (northeast valley)

steve zimmer
D4 (w.LA/hollywood hills)